

SUNSHINE IDIOMS

to walk on sunshine

to be really happy

"Harry is very happy, he is in love with Sally. He is walking on sunshine."

a ray of sunshine

someone or something that makes others feel very happy and positive. Often during a difficult time

"Sarah, my best friend, is a real ray of sunshine. She picks me up whenever I feel down."

It's not all sunshine and roses.

if a situation is not all sunshine and roses, there are unpleasant things to deal with as well as the pleasant ones

"Being married is not all sunshine and roses."

a pocket full of sunshine

If you have a pocket full of sunshine, you have plenty of reasons to be happy.

"Pete has a pocket full of sunshine. He is in love and just moved into a beautiful new house."

sunshine

used as a form of address, either in a friendly way, or to express unwillingness to accept another person's delays, bad behaviour, etc.

"Hello, sunshine!"

"Come on, sunshine, let's go!"